Go retro at Butlins

There's a new style of accommodation at Butlins Minehead – a collection of modern, lakeside chalets, styled on Billy Butlin's original design. Charlotte Gillman checks into one during a just for tots break

I can't quite place the feeling of the chalet when I first stepped out of the car. It felt like I was in a different world. The chalet was built in the 1930s, and it was designed to be a place where families could enjoy a holiday together. To get involved in TTG Features:

The editorial team normally has a synopsis prepared for each feature four-to-six weeks ahead of publication. Email Katherine to request it. Synopses include deadlines and freelancer contact details. Freelancers generally submit copy to us three weeks ahead of publication date. We send our pages to press on Mondays and Tuesdays; Wednesday is a better day to contact us.
